LOCAL AND PERSONAL

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair and colder tonight. Wednesday fair.

The postoffice will observe Sunday hours on Thanksgiving, while all the banks will be closed all day.

See J. M. Hetherington in the slave scene in Damon and Pythias, at the Elks opera house, November 29.

The Woman's Guild of St. John's church will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, in the Guild hall.

I. A. Dye was a passenger for Las Vegas this morning. Mr. Dye has a lumber yard at the Meadow City.

From present indications the opera house will be well filled to witness the great drama, Damon and Pythias, given by local talent.

The management of the Commercial club desires to announce that the dance to be tendered on Thanksgiving evening will be the annual function, and not the semi-monthly hop.

The local representative of the Rex Bitters company, of Chicago, is distributing around among the bloods of the city some unique advertising cards and some of them are exceptionally fine.

W. J. Dixon, who has been cashier at the Alvarado for the past several months, has been ordered to the El Tovar, at the Grand canyon. A young man from Needles will succeed Mr. Dixon at the Alvarado.

Robert Reagan, a well known veteran of the Civil war, had the misfortune to lose a $200 pension certificate recently. The banks have been warned to be on the lookout for the certificate and Mr. Reagan offers a reward for its return.

Marriage licenses were granted in Probate Clerk Sumner's office yesterday to the following persons: Maggie O'Donnell and Joe Montana; Florence Dillon and Frank Denno, all of Albuquerque, and Anita Montoya and Manford Padilla of Los Padillas.

Of all the new plays and comedies offered to theater goers last season none achieved such splendid success as "The Marriage of Kitty," which will soon be presented in this city with Alice Johnson at the head of an unusually clever organization.

Dr. C. H. Conner, the prominent osteopath, who has been ill for some time, was taken suddenly worse yesterday and his condition is reported as being critical. An erroneous report gained currency about the city this morning to the effect that Dr. Conner was dead.

It is understood that Bernard Schuster, of El Paso, has been appointed district manager for the Equitable Life Assurance society, with headquarters in El Paso. Mr. Schuster's district embraces West Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and the northern part of Mexico.

The regular meeting of G. K. Warren Post No. 5, G. A. R., will be held in I. O. O. F. hall next Saturday night, December 2, at 7 o'clock. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected and other important business transacted. All comrades are earnestly requested to be present. J. G. Caldwell, P. C. W. W. McDonald, Adj.

J. D. Tiraway, the Denver contractor, who is at present engaged in laying a macadam road from Fort Wingate to the Santa Fe road at Wingate station, returned to Wingate last night, after having spent several days in the city buying supplies. Mr. Tiraway expects to have his contract at Wingate finished within ten days.

A well known clerk of the city, a prominent member of the clerks' union, says that all of the stores in the city will be closed during the entire day Thursday, November 30, on account of Thanksgiving. The business houses will remain open until 9 or 10 o'clock Wednesday evening for the accommodation of those who have shopping to do.

Mrs. Menichina Dinelli, mother of the proprietor of the Elks cafe, accompanied by her son, who resides in California, left for Genoa, Italy, where they will spend the greater part of the winter. They take passage on the French line steamer "La Lorraine" from New York on Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Dinelli purchased her steamship tickets from Paul Teutsch, the local steamship ticket broker.

The public is cordially invited to attend the formal opening of Leonard & Lindemann's new music store on Gold avenue, arrangements for which have just been completed. An interesting program has been arranged. Mr. Blonin will play a selection on the cello, a repertoire of late musical bits will be rendered by Mr. Hadden, an accomplished violinist, the Alvarado trio will entertain, and Mr. Haven will sing a vocal solo.

The Gogalion club is making elaborate arrangements for the Thanksgiving dance to be given in the Elks opera house ball room on Thursday night. The members of the Gogalion club have some philanthropic motives as well as the motives implied by the name of the club—Go-gal-ion. They have promised the ladies of the Non-

Sectarian Benevolent association that if they take in more money by the dance than are the expenses of the same, they will divide evenly with the association. The club expects to use their half of the profits in renting club rooms for the ensuing year.

Manager Cheatham, of the Alvarado, is making big preparations for Thanksgiving dinner, which will begin at 6 p. m., and of course, continuing long enough for everybody to get their fill of Thanksgiving turkey. Col. Cheatham is from the knobs of Spencer county, Ky., where some of the finest turkeys in the world are raised, and he has a big gobble which he intends to dish up on Thanksgiving. Of course more gobblers than one will be killed for the Thanksgiving feast at the Alvarado, but the colonel says the juiciest bird of them all will be the gobble from his old home in Kentucky.

K. Soughimura, the recent selection of the Japanese Mikado for minister to Mexico, together with his wife and Mrs. Soughimura's maid and T. Kobayashi, chancellor of the Japanese legation in the City of Mexico, arrived at Laleta from San Francisco Monday and were transferred to the train No. 9 from the west. The party proceeded shortly afterwards to the Mexican capital, where Mr. Soughimura will assume his duties.

Rev. Mary J. Borden, the president of the New Mexico Woman's Christian Temperance union, has returned to the city from southern California. The popular lady is the great reform work attended the sessions of the National union at Los Angeles, and then went on to San Diego, where she visited friends for a couple of weeks. She reports having had a fine visit, and met a number of ex-Albuquerque citizens who are doing well in southern California.

F. E. Goldsmith, of Detroit, Mich., who was here last year and had charge of the local athletic club quarters as instructor, is again in the city and may continue west to southern California. He, however, will remain in the city for a short time, before determining where he will reside in the future.

Even out in Hell canyon, about fifteen miles from the city, deer roam at will. Last Sunday, while F. H. Kent was at his camp, a big buck came in shooting distance, but the commodore did not have a firearm to use, and the big antler passed on un-molested.

There will be a recital Thanksgiving evening at the First Methodist Episcopal church, given by Mr. John Wesley Beane, tenor, assisted by the Lyric Male quartette and local artists.
